Do you have recipes your family has been making for generations, or maybe a new recipe that has become a go-to meal? This summer the Women of Notre Dame will be asking for recipes of all kinds, from appetizers to desserts and everything in between, for our very own Notre Dame of Easton Parish Cookbook! So, start going through your family files, cookbooks, and recipe cards! You can submit as many recipes as you like – we may not be able to use them all, but the more recipes we get, the better the cookbook will be.

Stay tuned for submission information, deadline dates, and price information. If you are interested in being on the cookbook committee (open to everyone), please email Jeanine Pagliaro at:

We will have one or two meetings to get things started and then another meeting before we publish the book in the Fall.

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Job 38:1, 8-11

Job, in his suffering, questioned the power of God. The Lord proclaims his power and indicates that even the sea is subject to his will.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Christ died for all of us that we may live for him. Anyone who believes in Christ enters into new and eternal life.

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

During a bad storm, Jesus ordered the wind and sea to be still, and his disciples were quite amazed at his power. Jesus reminds them to trust and have faith, even in times of danger.
